THE CLAIRVOYANT

ST. CLAIR HIGH SCHOOL

1950

A Message
From Your Editor

I sincerely hope that the 1950 CLAIRVOYANT will serve as a constant reminder of the experiences you have enjoyed at St. Clair High School. It should be of special significance to the members of the Senior Class for it symbolizes the completion of their high school careers.

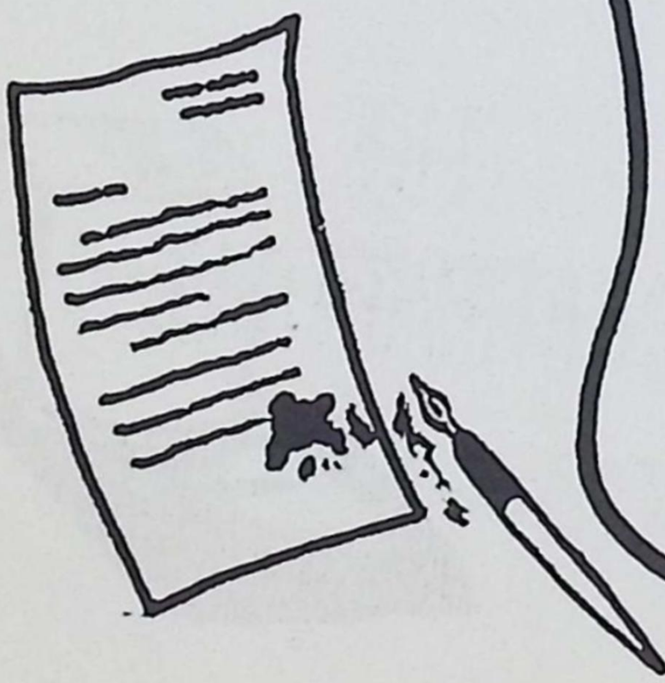
In assembling this annual, we, the staff of the 1950 CLAIRVOYANT, have spent untold effort and numerous hours both in and out of school. Our only wish that it may bring each of you many pleasant memories in future years; memories of sports events, social activities, youthful sorrows, laughs, friendships and the excitement that goes with learning and growing.

As you turn the pages of this yearbook may the snapshots, group photos, and general theme carry you back momentarily to some of the happiest days you will ever experience - school days!

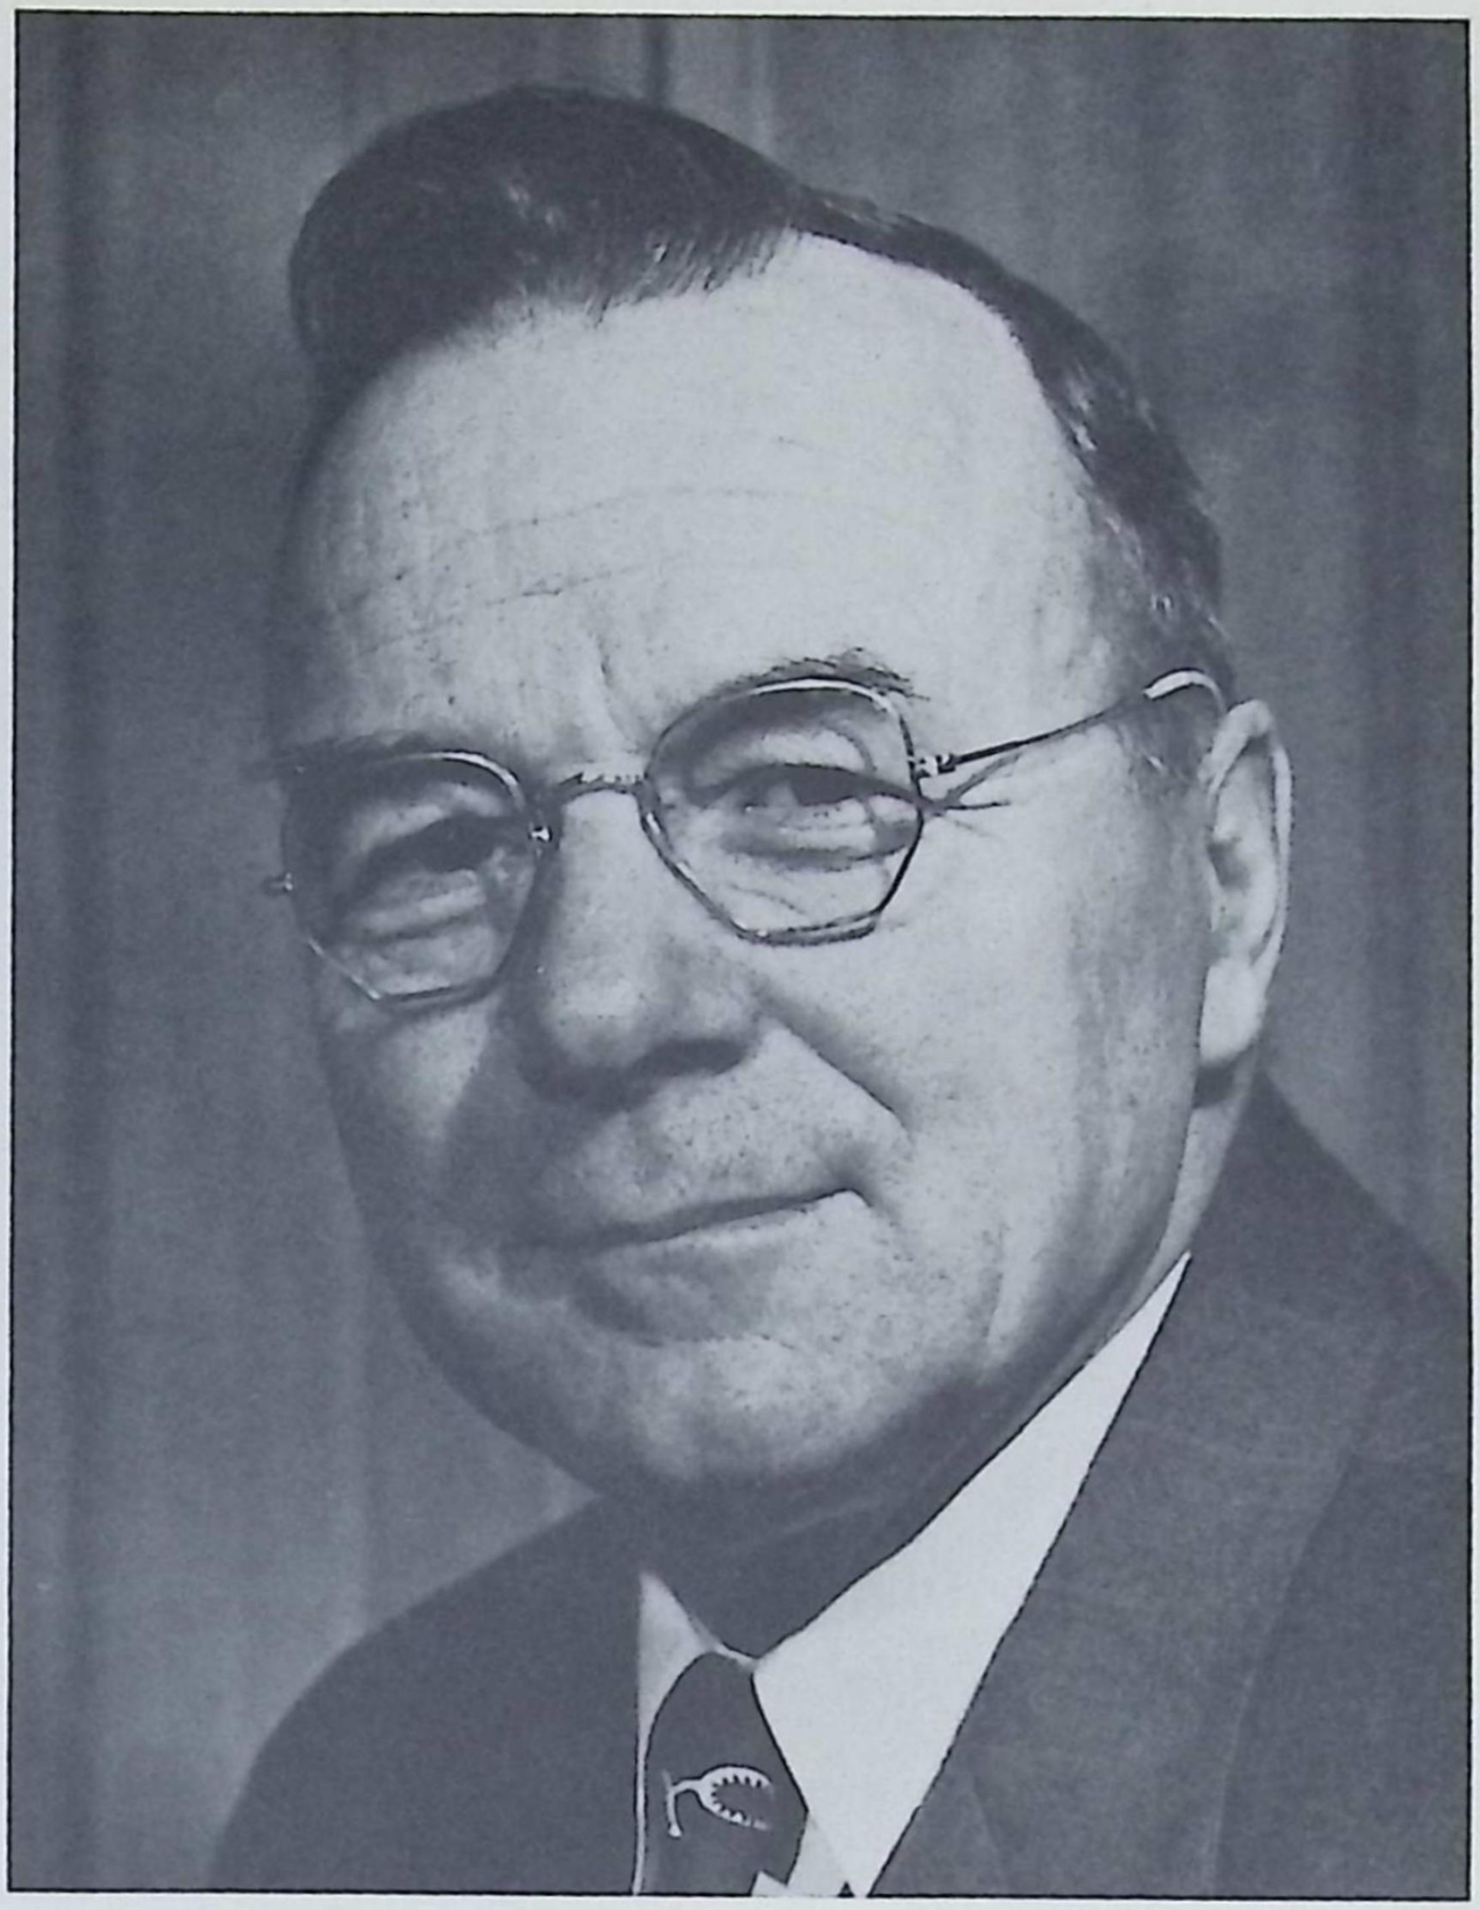
The staff and myself have gained a great deal and had a lot of fun putting this annual together. It is our wish that the task is as enjoyable to the staff of the 1951 CLAIRVOYANT. Good luck!

Your Editor,

Beatrice Bachand



DEDICATION



Hi, Bill!", is a salutation affectionately applied to William H. Mau by thousands of girls, boys, men and women who have been connected with the public schools of St. Clair.

The Board of Education acted wisely when it added this man to its staff twenty seven years ago, when the "new" school was built. Daily association with him must have added character to many of St. Clair's young people during their formative years. His primary interest has been the welfare of the boys and girls of the public schools.

Perhaps his greatest contribution has been the influence of his personality. He is friendly and spreads a contagious good humor wherever he goes. He is patient, performing countless favors for his associates. He is responsible, dependable and honest.

A great many people in St. Clair are proud to count him among their friends. The staff of the 1950 CLAIRVOYANT takes a great deal of pride in dedicating this annual to him.

Senior Advisor - 1949-50.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '50

In our Freshman year there were about eighty students in the class. The class officers were:

President . . . . . .Chris Sterling
Vice-President . . . . . Dot Recor
Secretary . . . . . Jean Westrick

Roger Nelson and Jean Toepfer were the Student Council Representatives. Our advisors were Mrs. Silkworth and Mr. Olhs; however, Mr. Olhs left early in the year and was replaced by Mr. Dotson. Our Carnival concession was a Spook House.

In the tenth grade Mr. Saul arrived to brighten up Biology. After arguing with the administration all year he finally secured some new microscopes. Mr. Saul also introduced a Driver Training Course. At the school elections for the following year, Gordon Buckner was elected as Student Council Vice-President and John Engelgau as Student Council Treasurer.

Our Junior year proved to be a wonderful success financially. Mr. Henderson and Miss Travis acted as class advisors; Alice Pollex was the class president. For the Carnival we combined homerooms and put on the food concession, which really pulled in a great deal of money. Another monetary milestone was our Junior Play, "Love Is Too Much Trouble," starring Norma Trumble and Dave Johnson. The eleventh grade also marked the beginning of bake sales for us. Our class rings arrived about two weeks after New Year's, having been promised for two weeks before Christmas. But they certainly were worth waiting for. We held our gala Junior-Senior Banquet at Devon Gables, in Pontiac. It was a long way, but food and fun were in abundance. The Banquet almost drained our treasury; however we weren't "In the hole." In the elections at the end of the year John Engelgau made the presidency of the Student Council and Dona Calvin was elected treasurer. Marie Carrigan claimed the editorship of the "Echo."

Seniors at last! The best year of high school promised to be a good one. Mr. Hellinga and Miss Travis were the advisors, Mr. Henderson having left the preceding year. The class officers were:

President . . . . . .Alice Pollex
Vice-President . . . . .Joanne Meyers
Secretary . . . . . Norma Trumble
Treasurer . . . . . Jean Westrick

Elections were held at the beginning of the year; Beatrice Bachand won the editorship of the "Clairvoyant" and Sis Roegner was elected Publicity Manager. Dick Burroughs, Jean Westrick, and Bob Richmond were our Student Council Representatives. We also put on the Senior Play, "The Brainstorm" starring Albert Mau, John Engelgau, and Lorraine Zacharias. We also gave bake sale and sold food at the basketball games to put more money in our treasury. The ground-hog didn't come out on schedule, but Spring did come at last. The crowning of the May Queen, the Washington trip, the Junior-Senior Banquet, the Senior Prom, Class night Baccalaureate, Commencement and the announcement that Marie Carrigan and Beatrice Bachand are our Co-Valedictorians and John Engegan is our Salutatorian.....all make our graduation and history complete. Good bye, St. Clair High. We salute the Class of 1951!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '50

We of the Senior Class of 1950, being of sound health and in full possession of all our mental faculties, in spite of doubts expressed from time to time on that subject by our revered teachers and elders, do hereby make, devise, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking and rendering null and void all other wills and testaments heretofore made, devised, and declared by us.

To the Juniors we bequeath our front row seats in assesmbly, trusting that their conduct in occupying the same will be modelled on our irreproachable behavior.

To the Sophomores we bequeath such snare in the money-making activities of the high school as they can finagle out of the upper classmen and the Administration.

To the Freshmen we bequeath the hope that in the four years of their high school career they may win the affection and admiration of the faculty as we have done.

To our loved and respected faculty we bequeath simply HOPE.

Joan Arnold wills those inevitable pills she has carried so faithfully this last year to that frail sophomore, Shirley Beaudau.

Ruth Allum bequeaths her job at the Western Auto Store to Carol Tassie, in case Finsterwald's loses its attractions.

Beatrice Bachand leaves those high grades in physics to Chuck McManigal, in case he can get Mr. Leflet to see it that way.

Dick Biewer wills his truck to Tom Woods, as he is afraid Tom's won't hold together another twelve months.

Dona Blivin bequeaths the honor of being named "Home-coming Queen" to Natalie Bailey--providing, of course, that there is a home-coming and that she can win the vote.

Gordon "Buck" Buckner leaves Brand's for an electric (he hopes) career in the Navy.

Dick Burroughs wills that "man of distinction" look to Bob McCartney.

Betty Brenner bequeaths her chair in the ticket office of the St. Clair Theater to any faculty member who is financially embarrassed.

Marie Carrigan wills her mastery of the English language to Bill Smith.

Charlotte Currier wills the remnants of her career in the vocal music department to Sally Brinker, Charlotte feeling that she never was appreciated there.

Mary Curtis bequeaths those extra inches she never grew in high school to Sammy Webster.

Marilyn Dimick leaves those interesting bits of information to Susan Stenger to be passed on next year.

J. P. Engelgau with due dignity does bequeath and bestow those honors and emoluments that do pertain to the eminent and worshipful position of President of the School Council unto that right worthy junior, Harry Mayhew, to wit.

Tedd Fairbrother wills his musical talents, but not his guitar, to Howard Sass.

Gwen Gliem bequeaths her golden vocal cords to Dorothy Smith.

Janice Hart wills those extra ounces of energy to Jeanne Brewe.

Ken Hayden leaves that boisterousness of his to Norval Emig, but cautions Norval not to overdo it.

Joanne Heering leaves the example of a girl who can stick faithfully to one man to Mary Jane Koenig, who so far has proved herself worthy.

Bud Joachim leaves his quietness and reserve to Lee Ceasor, together with his book, "How to Win Faculty Friends."

Dave Johnson wills his perfect attendance record to whoever can equal it, Mr. Speer to be the judge and to consider Jack Biewer as a possible candidate.
Mickey Kotcher bequeaths her good taste in dress to Joanne Williams.
Wayne Livezy wills his algebra "A's" to "Squint" Stubbs.
Tom Lyon wishes to bestow his sole chair in band to Pat Laird, who, he understands, is getting weary of playing one note a day.
Jim Magary wills his scholarship record to Johnny Pruitt together with that extra quarter credit he has earned.
Dolores Marsh leaves Marty to no one.

Alfie Mau bequeaths his '35 Chevy, minus one back fender, one window, and all the other minuses it may have accumulated by June, to Ray Marvin.
Bill Mau leaves his love for Terminal (or any other) Math to Dave Fordon.
Bud McMannigal wills his skill in purchasing trouble in the shape of a car to Ray Ellis, who, he has been told, is in the market.
Joanne Meyers wills her position as unofficial secretary to Mr. Maki to Lucille Raymond with the advice, "A job is what you make it."
Roger Nelson bequeaths his "way with women" to Don Leach.
Skip Oppertshauser leaves his "tall" stories to Danny Beach.
Mae Path wills her telephone hour with Marine City to Ken McWain, and hopes for his sake the telephone strike won't last too long.
Alice Pollex leaves her surplus fund of questions to anyone trying for "A's" in physics next year.
Dorothy Recor is willing to leave a Ford, but not a Pontiac.
Bob Richmond wills that perfectly controlled temper of his to Jersey Joe Lindow.
Sis Roegner bestows those "Spikes" upon Denny Nelson.

Dorothy Sanger leaves her knack of cracking up training cars to Jean Densmore. . in case there ever is another Driver's Training Course.
K. Schaller bestows those valuable stocks together with his reputation of a business tycoon to Walter Mau.
Frank Socha is giving his engagement ring back to Alvin Zimmer.
Norma Trumble wills that ability of hers to make a lightning decision on a "one and only" to Agnes Mollan.
Shirley Van Buskirk bequeaths her "angelic innocence" (her own words) upon Cookie Kraft.
Jean Westrick leaves her reputation as a sane and careful driver to Marilyn Bailey.
Kathleen Westrick wishes to share her quick, bubbling spirits with that quiet little Sis Joachim.
Theresa Williams leaves her batting average to Evelyn Kenyon.
Gerry Wolvin wills her latest hair-do, whatever it may be, to Sally Ann Lee.

Lorraine Zacharias thinks she will leave that out-of-town boy friend to Marie Stone, but has not quite made up her mind.
Kendall Zimmer wills one ACE comb a month to Ray Lenaway.
Rosemary Zimmer bequeaths a booklet on "How to be charming and quiet" to Caroll Bower.
Rosemary M. Zimmer leaves her wealth of experience as hostess at pajama parties to Claudia Cain.

Vice-President . . . . . H. Mayhew
Secretary . . . . . J. Ruff
Treasurer . . . . . D. Blivin

Our School Council consists of a president, vice-president, secretary, and a treasurer. They are elected by the entire school community. A representative from each homeroom is elected by the group they represent. The editors of the Echo and Clairvoyant, two faculty representatives, a representative from the Board of Education and the Superintendent also comprise its membership. A Parliamentarian is appointed by the president. This person serves in an advisory capacity only.

The council particularly takes up the problems of the students through the homeroom representatives at the meetings. Also, improvements that the council thinks are needed are discussed and action taken as quickly as possible.

This organization also sets up a plan by which special programs and entertainment are brought to the school community members through assemblies. Regular school dances and other recreational activities are also instigated through the council efforts.

The school council was organized for the purposes which are stated clearly in the Preamble of the Constitution of the St. Clair School Community. "------to provide for student participation in the management of extra-curricular affairs, establish better understanding between students and faculty and to permit student expression in matters concerning the school's general welfare."

The Band Club is a newly formed organization this year. Its main purpose is to get the members to take more interest in the band. The officers of the club meet every Tuesday and discuss the problems of the band. Up to date this year they have organized a point system for receiving a letter in band. They are now working on the problem of uniforms. Every member of the band is a member of the Band Club. They hope to become a better organization by next year.

This year we have fifty-four in the Senior High Girls Glee Club. During the course of the year we have presented programs for several community organizations and have participated in a number of school functions.

Our activities have included singing for the History Club, the Rotary Club, the Parent-Teachers Association, and the Christmas assembly at school. We also presented our annual Christmas program entitled "Your Christmas Musical." This year, for the first time, we are beginning to do A cappella. Our main event of the spring term was the River District Musical Festival in which we took part. At that time we sang under a guest conductor.

The Girls Glee Club sang under the direction of a very talented woman, Miss Lois Williams.

THE STAFF

Editor . . . . . Marie Carrigan
Assistant Editor . . . . . Mary Greig
Business Manager . . . . . Gordon Buckner
Production Manager . . . . . Tom Lyons
Sports . . . . . John Engelgau
Feature Editor . . . . . Georgia Cronkite

The Echo is the official school newspaper and is published twice monthly on Fridays throughout the school year. With Marie Carrigan and Gordon Buckner as editor and business manager, The Echo has produced some interesting and worthwhile issues during 1949-50. Tom Lyons, Mary Greig, and Georgia Cronkite have all devoted many tireless hours of effort to give St. Clair High School the best possible newspaper.

DEBATE

FIRST ROW: C. Carrigan, H. Mayhew, Mrs. Jane, advisor.

SECOND ROW: C. MacManigal, J. Magary, R. McCartney, H. Sass.

For a number of years the students of St. Clair High School have had the privilege of participating in the field of contest speech. Again this year St. Clair joined the Michigan High School Forensic Association to debate the question; "Resolved: That the President of the United States be elected by a direct vote of the people." The director of debate this year was Mrs. Jane.

The debate season began with one team coming out. A time keeper and a manager were chosen. After the preliminary debates Harry Mayhew and Carol Carrigan joined making two teams.

Our debate season closed with two debaters dropping out and one victory over Sandusky.

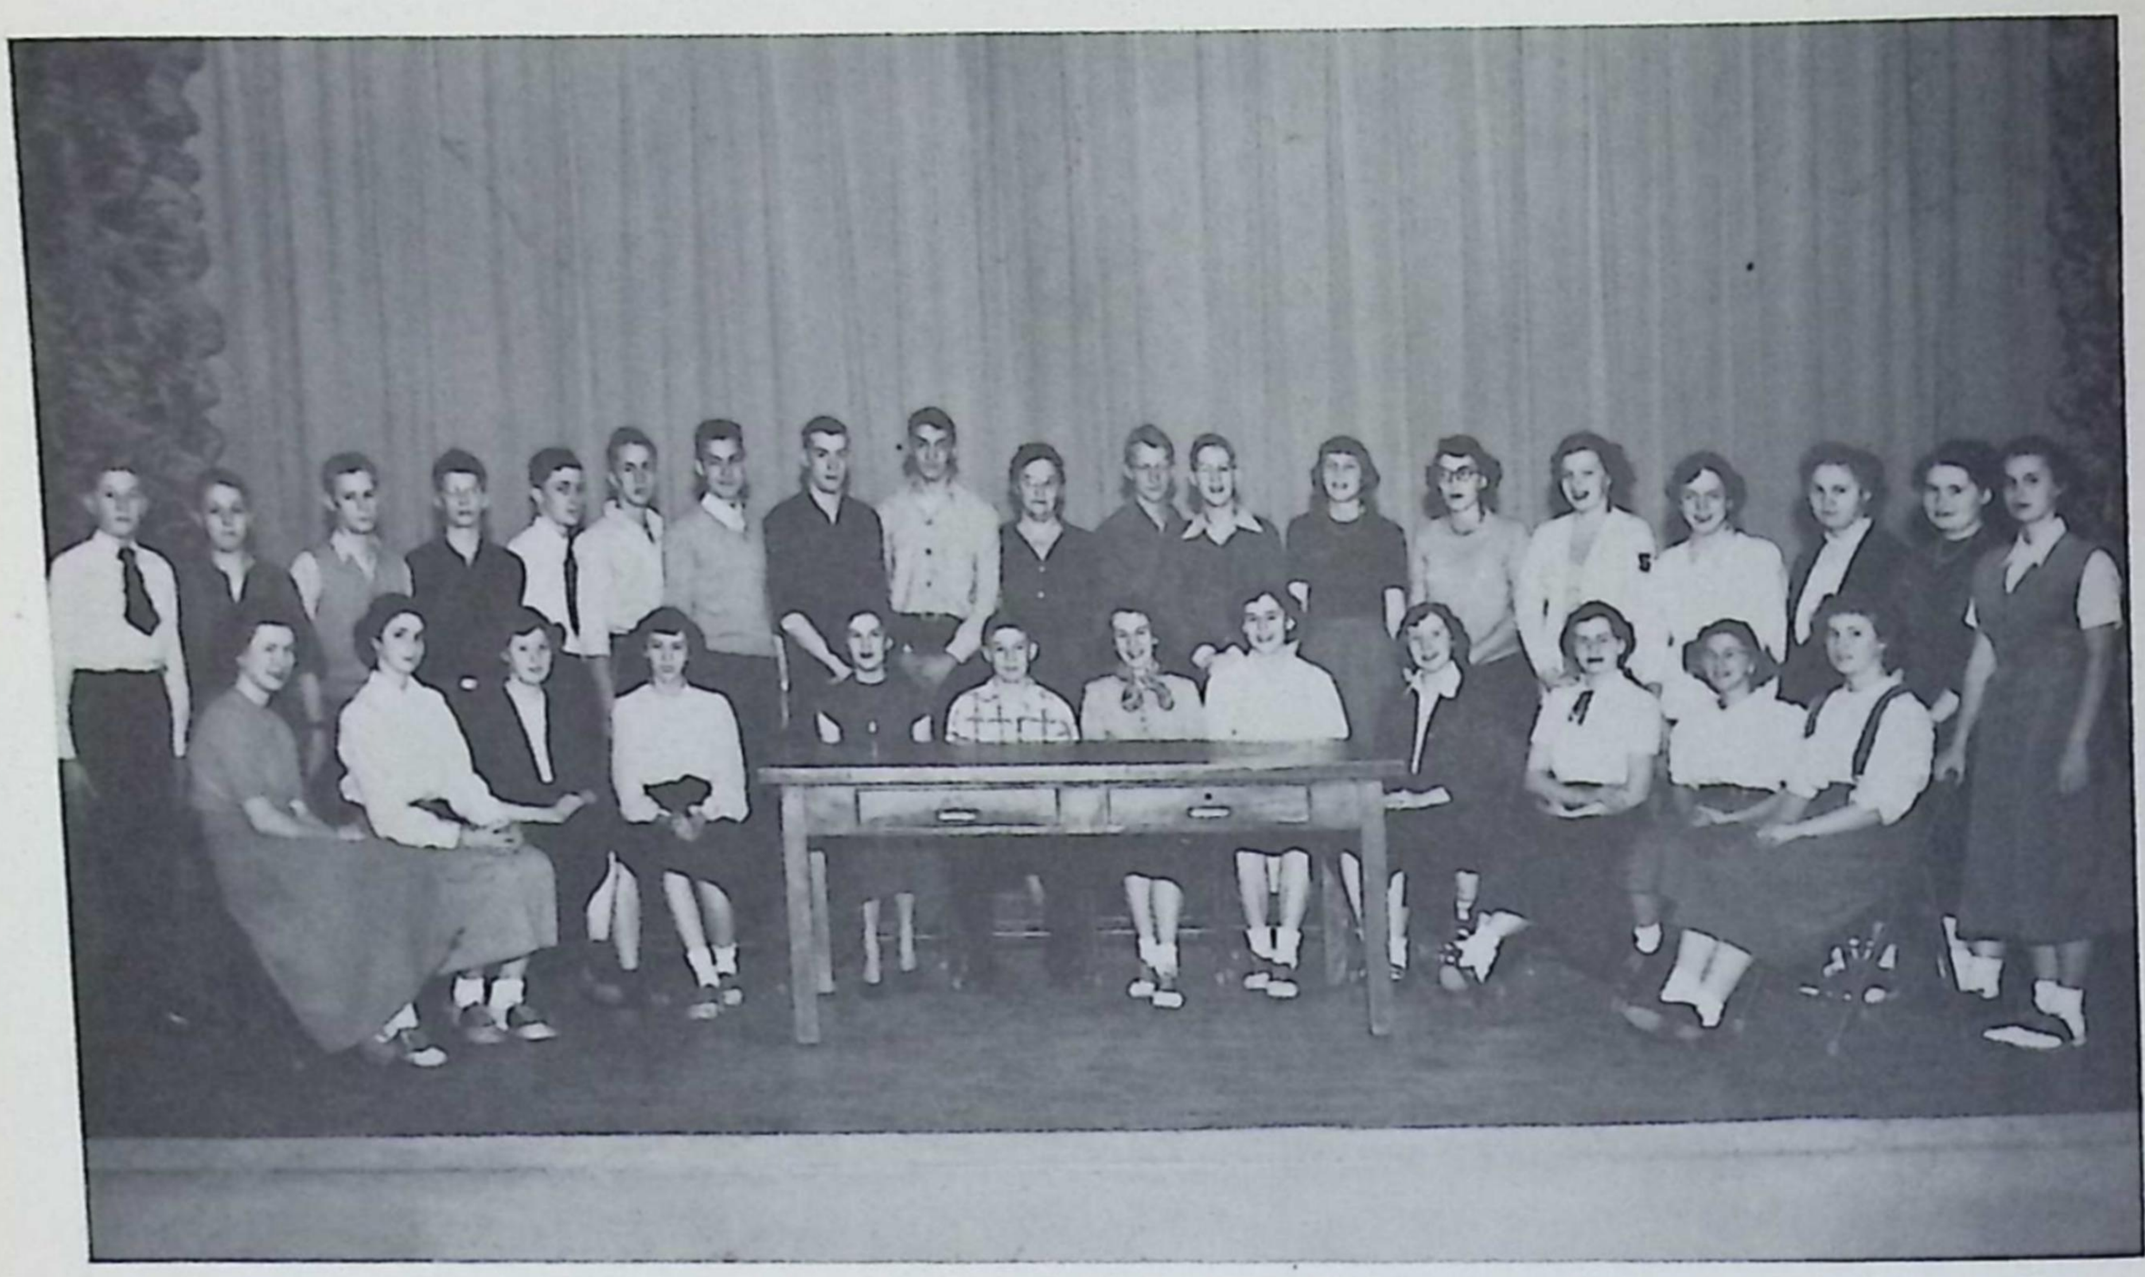
FIRST ROW, left to right: M. J. Denomy, E. Hyslop, B. Brenner, C. Tassie, S. Beaudua, B. Bachand, C. Carrigan, D. Kotcher, J. Engelgau, M. Brinker, S. Gregory. SECOND ROW: C. Welser, Mr. Burgoyne, advisor. ABSENT: C. Bower, E. Smith.

The first annual staff meeting was held in October. Myers and Company, Inc. of Topeka, Kansas, was selected to print the "Clairvoyant." After choosing a cover and making a "dummy", the staff set to work in earnest. The first deadline was on January 20 and the last one was met in April. Our efforts were finally rewarded when the annuals arrived in June just before graduation.

The editorial staff consisted of Beatrice Bachand, editor; Shirley Beaudua, assistant editor; C. Carrigan, business manager; C. Tassie, art editor; C. Bower, copy editor; B. Brenner and S. Gregory, class editors; M. J. Denomy and M. Brinker, activity editor; D. Kotcher, photography editor; and J. Engelgau, sports editor.

Not to be forgotten, Mr. Burgoyne, advisor, worked with all the staff members to make this annual a success.

LATIN CLUB



FIRST ROW, left to right: M. Greig, C. Carrigan, B. Path, M. J. Denomy, L. Serant, G. Roegner, E. Smith, C. Joachim, M. Stone, M. Brinker, M. Podsaid, M. L. Distelrath. SECOND ROW: T. Seiss, F. Matthews, C. Tassie.

OFFICERS

President . . . . . Elaine Smith
Vice-President . . . . . George Roegner
Secretary . . . . . Carolyn Joachim
Treasurer . . . . . Lenora Serant

The Latin Club was formed late in the year and at the time of publication a name had not been selected. The purpose of this organization is to further cultural knowledge of early Greek and Roman life. The members are students in school who have, or are, taking Latin.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

September 16

The Saints started the season off on the right foot, tripping Capac 13 - 6 on their home field. Johnny Pruitt scored twice, and Hasler added an extra point to pace the home-team.

September 23

In the first league game of the year, Coach Waytulonis used most of his reserves as St. Clair rolled over Holy Cross 21 - 0. Harry Mayhew played a fine game.

September 30

The St. Clair County League Champs, Algonac, showed how they attained that position as the Saints finished on the short end of a 40 - 14 contest. Mayhew and Pruitt showed the way to the only St. Clair scoring.

October 5

The Saints out-classed an inferior St. Stephen's team 20 - 0. Bill Gearing starred on two fine catches for touchdowns and Pruitt accounted for two others.

October 14

St. Clair's Homecoming was a success. In a 20 - 6 victory, Clyde Hasler showed the Mariners how to run. The band played and the crowd cheered as the Saints won a huge trophy donated by Finsterwalds. A Victory Dance followed the game and Dona Bliven was crowned as Queen.

October 21

The Saints ran up their highest score in tripping New Baltimore 27 - 6, leading by 20 points at the end of the first half. The Saints coasted through the rest of the game.

October 28

After leading Marysville 7 - 0 there, the Saints succumbed to a powerful ground attack 19 - 7.

November 4

Playing in snow and rain, the Saints came from behind to tie Richmond and celebrate Dad's Day. Johnny Pruitt scored the lone touchdown. Final score 6 - 6.

November 11

In an exhibition game, Croswell-Lexington dropped St. Clair 25 - 14. Preceeding the game, an Armistice Day Parade, including the Port Huron National Guard and the High School Band, marched through the business district. During the half, the Guards entertained the fans with military maneuvers and a sham battle.

This club is composed of letter winners from any high school athletic team. This organization deals with any topic which has to do with the welfare of the athletic program in St. Clair High School.

CHEERLEADERS

The duties of the cheerleaders are to cheer at all football and basketball games. They are members of the program and Rally Committee. They plan all football and some basketball pep meetings. Homerooms were appointed to take over the remainder of the pep meetings. The cheerleaders have improved their cheers and have been right on the job this year. We lost one of our cheerleaders, Thelma Miller, early in January.
